Hyundai Cruise Profile & Directions

The Ara Gimpo Passenger Terminal on the Gyeongin Ara Waterway, which was used as the main dock for the Hyundai cruise from 2016 to the present, will be in use until the end of 2024, and from 2025, the Yeouido complex dock, located on the Han River, will function as the main dock for the Hyundai cruise.

We are opening the Han River era to make it easier to use in Seoul, the capital of Korea.

Through these initiatives in 2025, Hyundai Cruise aims to provide enhanced services and experiences, offering guests unforgettable and extraordinary moments.

2025 Hyundai Cruise Operation Plan (Draft) _ Yeouido complex dock

Hyundai Cruise Line is constructing a dock in Yeouido to enable unrestricted navigation on the Han River, with plans to open it in December 2024. This Yeouido complex dock, built and operated directly by us, will be the first of its kind on the Han River, accommodating not only large cruise ships but also passenger ferries traveling to and from the West Sea.

As the first project of Seoul's Great Han River Project, the Yeouido complex dock will offer a comfortable and safe environment for enjoying river cruise tours.

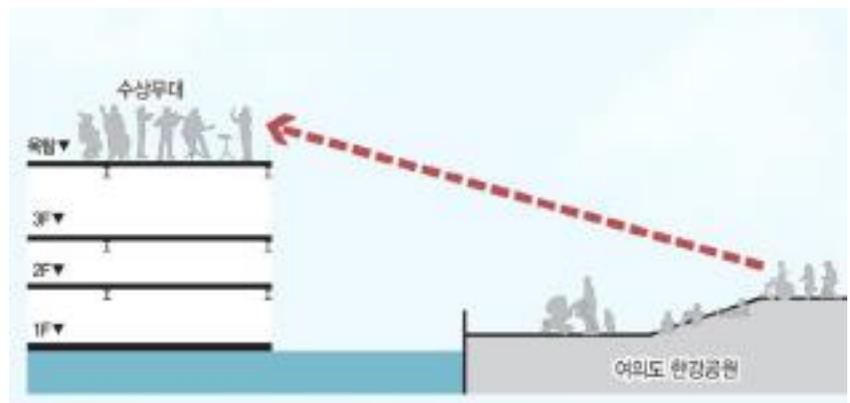

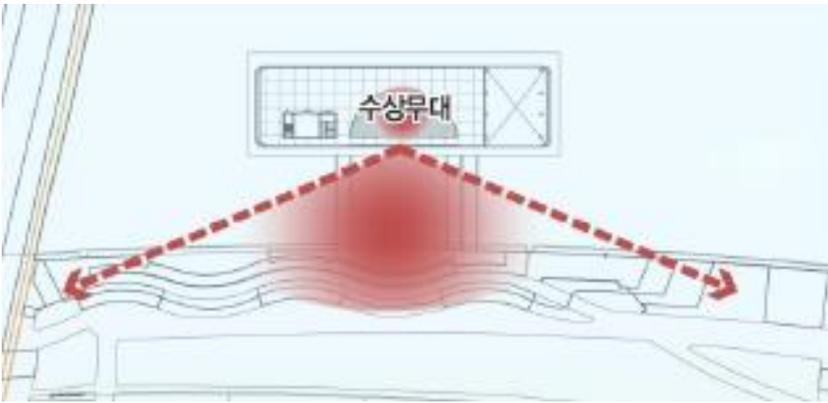

2025 Hyundai Cruise Operation Plan (Draft) _ Yeouido complex dock

- Name: Yeouido Complex Dock
- Completion: December 2024
- Location: Yeouinaru Station, upstream of Mapo Bridge
- Area: 3,636 m²
- Purpose: Han River to Ara Waterway cruise, Han River to West Sea islands passenger ferry
- Providing much-needed port facilities and amenities for the Han River.
- The first outcome of the "Great Han River Project"

Expected Benefits: Provision of berths for three vessels of 1,000 tons or less, with simultaneous operations of passenger ships and cruise ships.

2025 Hyundai Cruise Operation Plan (Draft) _ Yeouido complex dock
